Dear Praying Friends,

September 2018

It was only a few weeks ago that I wrote about our support encroaching on 80% and now, Praise the Lord, I can report that we are past 80%. This is so encouraging to us. God has touched the hearts of churches and individuals to partner with us in prayer as well which means the world to us as we head back in a few months without the children. We surely will need all the prayer we can get!

Currently I am back on the road until Thanksgiving as I have a packed schedule of meetings in both new and supporting churches. I will be in West Virginia for a few weeks and then I will crisscross from Maine to California. After the last 11 weeks I took a week off the road to wash some clothes, mail some letters and see our youngest start his first day of college at Pensacola Christian. Sheri and I got the van unloaded, washed and then packed it back down. I am taking my oldest son, Wyatt, with me for this trip while Sheri is traveling and preparing for the upcoming wedding of our daughter Katie. Pray for us during this time to get everything accomplished that the Lord would have us do. We are doing all we can to get back to Brazil and honestly, it is difficult for us to be away from our ministry for so long.

Sheri and I were out knocking on doors and passing out tracts recently when we came across a man and his son who said they wanted to go to church because "everyone needs Jesus". He even said to leave a tract at his neighbor's door because he thought he REALLY needed Jesus. I have encouraged myself with his words as we continue to finish up this lengthy furlough. Everyone needs Jesus. Everyone in Brazil needs Jesus and I am willing to do whatever it takes to make sure that happens. We are in a heated Presidential election in Brazil and the conservative candidate was just stabbed by the opposition in the stomach at a political rally. This only proves my point that Jesus is the Only Answer and Brazil needs to hear the Gospel Message now more than ever.

Thank you for your prayers and thank you for your support. We love each of you.

God bless you,

Mark and Sheri Edwards
