SEPTEMBER - OCTOBER 2018

Dear Friends and faithful supporters,

2Co 4:1 ¶ Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; 2Co 4:16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward [man] is renewed day by day.

Flea Market Outreach: There were 2 Saturdays when the New Mexico State Fair was in place and there was no flea market.

For this period the following literature was given out 780 tract packs, 13 KJV Bibles, 2 New Testaments, 11 Spanish Bibles, 2 Navajo Bibles, 2 Spanish Ladies devotionals, 3 Know Your Bible books, 4 Bible Promise books, 8 Children's Bed time Bible stories books, 2 John Wesley books on Prayer, 9 daily Bread Devotional books, and one Lady was saved. She was Spanish speaking only.

Flea Market Fruit: The following is the testimony of a Man that wrote a letter back to the address written on the back of a tract pack he received: "I believe in Jesus Christ as my Savior. One day me and my brother went to Salazar Mortuary and funeral was all taken care of for me. I am going to be cremated. Sometimes I get scared about death, but it's part of life. I Julian Garcia, Jr. will be ready one day when Jesus calls me one day to go & leave this world. Just to let you know. Sincerely Julian Garcia:"

Gospel tracts still have an impact in this world of digital devices. It is so easy to leave or give a tract. Cell phones have their use. But when we spend more time on them surfing the net, social media and etc., that we don't spend quality time with our families and being aware of the lost people around us. Then the devil is keeping us distracted from what we should be doing telling others about Jesus. I was in the doctor's office for my knees a couple weeks ago. He was looking at my record on computer talking to me and asking questions. I answered something and he said "It's better than the alternative." I saw it as an open door and responded the words "not necessarily so" and was able to give him the gospel! Had I had my nose buried in my phone I would have missed the chance. God Bless! I love You!
